Fáilte

A chara,

Le 30 bliain anuas tá Oideas Gael i dtús cadhnaíochta ag cur ar fáil cúrsaí Gaeilge agus laetha saoire cultúrtha. Le linn an ama sin tá na mílte ag tarraingt orainn ó gach cearn d'Éirinn agus ón iliomad tír ar fud an domhain. Is mór mo phléisiúr, mar sin, cuireadh a thabhairt duit a bheith inár gcuideachta agus taitneamh a bhaint as seal ama linn nach ndéanfaidh tú dearmad air.

I gceantar álainn dheisceart Dhún na nGall gheobhaidh tú deis ar leith páirt a ghlacadh, mar aon le daoine spéisiúla eile ag a bhfuil an aidhm chéanna, i sainghrúpa teagaisc faoi chúram oide chun Gaeilge a fhoghlaim nó a fheabhsú, sin nó dul ag siúl sna sléibhte, nó a bheith páirteach i gceann dár ceardlanna, mar atá sa bhróisiúr: ceol, amhránaíocht, damhsaí agus péintéireacht.

Cibé rogha a dhéanfaidh tú féadfaidh tú a bheith cinnte go mbeidh sárlaetha saoire agat linn. Cuir scéala chugamsa le haghaidh tuilleadh eolais — agus scaip féin an dea-scéala!

Le gach dea-ghuí,
Liam Ó Cuinneagáin, Stiúrthóir

For over 30 years, Oideas Gael has led the field in Irish language courses and cultural activity holidays. During this period, we have attracted thousands of participants from all over Ireland and throughout the world. I have great pleasure, in inviting you to join us for what will prove to be an unforgettable experience.

In the beautiful setting of south Donegal you will have a unique opportunity with other interesting and motivated people to learn or improve your Irish in a tutorial group, or to go hill-walking, or participate in music, song, dance, painting or other workshops, as set out in this brochure. Whatever you choose, a pleasant holiday is assured.

Contact me for further details — and do pass on the word.

Oideas Gael

Since its foundation in 1984, Oideas Gael has attracted hundreds of participants annually to its highly acclaimed language courses and cultural programmes. Irish people, drawn from all backgrounds, constitute up to half of those attending, while the remainder travel specially from numerous other parts of the world to attend. The unique blend of expertly prepared courses, together with an attractive mix of cultural sessions, all located within Gaeltacht communities, enabling learners to improve their fluency in Irish while, at the same time, enjoying our living culture. As an alternative to the graded language courses, a broad range of cultural activity programmes is offered to participants interested in experiencing a unique style of learning holiday.

Foras Cultúir Uladh

Foras Cultúir Uladh (The Ulster Cultural Institute), with its custom-designed facilities, including wireless broadband, (free to course participants), is used by Oideas Gael in Gleann Cholm Cille as the venue for its varied activities and caters for the specific needs of language learners and the special requirements of the cultural programme.

Language Courses Cúrsaí Gaeilge

OIDEAS GAEL Language courses are specially designed to cater for the needs of adults at all learning stages, including those who are more advanced but in need of practice. Each course contains three or more levels: beginner, intermediate and advanced and is usually of one week's duration.

CLASS TUITION is by specialist teachers who use graded courses, supported by modern audio-visual resources, as well as other proven methods of language teaching. The daily schedule consists of intensive morning and afternoon tutorials with attention directed towards spoken Irish (except for some units at the highest level) aiming at correct pronunciation, proper idiom and development of vocabulary, particularly of contemporary life. Our aim is to foster conversational ability and fluency, with up to 35 language contact hours per course. Recreational activities such as dancing, poetry, or guest lectures take place each evening, after which participants are free to practise their Irish with people from all other levels while enjoying the craic in the local pubs.

The social format of the courses ensures that people attending on their own, quickly feel comfortable and at ease within the group.

It has been the experience of the Directors that beginners who complete a two-week programme succeed in achieving a marked improvement in fluency.

Irish course participants may now register for the TEG oral certification. (www.teg.ie)

Courses are officially recognised by the Department of Education and Skills.

COURSES FOR TEACHERS

Múinteoirí Bunscoile

Tugtar aitheantas do chúrsaí Oideas Gael faoi Riail 58 mar chúrsaí inseirbhíse a thuilleann saoire bhreise phearsanta.

Courses are usually recognised by 'An Roinn Oideachais' under rule 58 for in-service training and extra personal leave.

Scrúdú Cáilíochta na Gaeilge

Oideas Gael Irish language courses are appropriate for teachers wishing to learn and improve their spoken Irish for 'Scrúdú Cáilíochta na Gaeilge' (SCG/OCG) and other qualifications.*

(See www.oideasgael.ie for dates)

SPECIAL GROUP COURSES

Irish courses are organised during the year at beginner and intermediate levels by special request.

Oideas Gael also offers group study or semester programmes for universities, companies, social clubs and other organisations requiring specialist courses on the Irish language, culture, traditional music, archaeology, environment, folklore, weaving or other disciplines.

Combination courses are also organised by special arrangement. Accommodation and travel can be arranged to suit particular requirements. These courses are offered outside of our regular summer schedule thus giving students an excellent opportunity to interact with local people and to participate in the everyday life of the community.

Recent external programmes offered at Oideas Gael include:

- 4 week language & cultural programme for Evergreen State College, Washington.
- 15 week 'Colmcille Semester' programme offered by the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, in conjunction with Oideas Gael & The University of Ulster at Derry.
- The Irish Studies program offered by Hartwick College, Oneonta, NY, U.S.A.
- The Traditional Irish Music program offered by Colorado College, Colorado Springs, CO.
- Ireland's Language & Culture Program for Augusta University, GA.
- One-week Irish Studies programme offered by Northeastern University, Boston, MA.

Says: John Gleeson, Professor, Irish Studies Program, University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee.

"I have been bringing our students to Oideas Gael for several years now and the programmes offered are most varied and challenging. Our students are rewarded with a special experience contributing greatly to their cultural, social & personal development. I recommend these programs highly."

Says: Dr. Reid Golden, Professor of Sociology, Hartwick College, Oneonta, NY

"Hartwick College spends a week at Oideas Gael during its biennial Irish Studies course. Students are immersed in the rhythms of a small traditional village – an increasingly rare experience. The course then moves on to experience ever larger towns. Hartwick's expansive curriculum emphasizes a uniquely experiential approach to the liberal arts. Through personalized teaching, collaborative research, a unique January Term, a wide range of international and other internships, and vast study-abroad opportunities, Hartwick ensures that students are prepared for the world ahead. Oideas Gael provides exactly the type of opportunities and programs that meet Hartwick's goal of preparing students for an increasingly globalised world."

Course Locations Ceantair

Gleann Cholm Cille

This Gaeltacht area of southwest Donegal, named after St. Colm Cille, is located in the scenically splendid Sliabh Liag peninsula.

The region is renowned for its wealth of tradition, culture, music and prehistoric settlements, as well as the excellent amenities specially created here, such as the famous Folk Village, founded by Fr. McDyer as a result of notable community effort, to which the work of Oideas Gael continues to contribute. An tOireachtas, the major celebration of Irish language and culture, took place here in October 1989.

Gleann Fhinne & Toraigh

An Coimín, Gleann Fhinne, is located on the fringe of the impressive Cruacha Gorma (Blue Stack Mountains) in the heart of the Donegal Highlands. Oileán Thorai is a thriving island community, a 45 minutes ferry trip from Cé Mhachaire Rabhartaigh. Both areas are well-known for their riches of oral tradition, as well as the excellence of its native singers and dancers. Our courses in these lively Irish-speaking communities, offer participants with an unequalled opportunity for social and cultural interaction with vibrant communities of diverse ages and talents.

All Courses are held in our main centre in Gleann Cholm Cille

EXCEPT 'Saibhreas na Gaeilge', Oileán Thorai, 30 Meitheamh-6 Iúil and our two language courses in An Coimín, Gleann Fhinne 21-28 July & 28 July-4 August
